AQUILA

Vol. II Published by the Students of Eastwood High School • Pemberville, Ohio

Barbara Sundermeier, editor; Paulette Schuerman, assistant editor; Thomas Kurfess and Theodore Swartz, co-business managers; Mary Lou Widmer, classes editor; Donald Gerke, activities editor; Paul Schlachter, advertising editor; Lillian Vavrik, art editor; Kenneth Spicer, photography editor; John Moore, sports editor; Mrs. Ruth Drake, adviser.

Foreword

We, the Aquila Staff of 1960, present this second edition of the Aquila hoping it will serve as a future reminder of the happy days spent at Eastwood.

With deep appreciation, we look backward and visualize the road we have traveled filled with the blessings and benefits we have received.

We extend our hand in friendship, a friendship which has grown the past two years and which, we hope, will last forever.

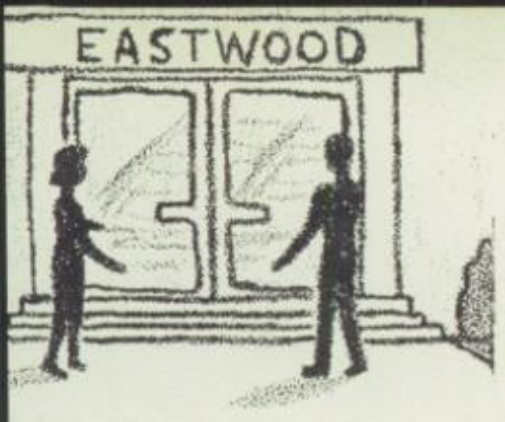
"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

ENTIRE CAST



Senior History

In the fall of 1958, we entered Eastwood High School for the first the first time. Because of the consolidation, our class enrollment was 93.

After getting acquainted, we elected the following class officers: Robert Wolfe, President; Mario Migilori, Vice President; Sirje Nepp, Secretary; and Janet Dierksheide, Treasurer. Our advisers were Mr. Norman Lattanza, Mr. Joe Beeker, and Mr. Robert Stager.

In late September, we ordered our class rings, after waiting anxiously and impatiently they arrived December 16.

Myra Minnix and Janet Dierksheide represented our class as basketball queen attendants.

As one of our money-making projects we served the Pemberville Elevator Association Banquet.

Early in April, we started working on our play "You Can't Take It With You."

The cast included: Joan Staib, Lillian Vavrik, Rebecca Henline, Ronald Spoerl, Donald Gerke, Ronald Cook, Raymond Ruswinkle, Gerald Abke, Ann Wallace, Dale Bockbrader, James Wegeman, Richard Bosse, Barbara Sundermeier, Stephen Essinger, Janet Dierksheide, John Brueggemeier, Michael VanCamp, Joseph Brockseker, Marcella Hilt.

Mr. Robert Stager was the director. After five weeks of hectic practice, it was presented May 8 and 9. We thought it was a huge success. Work on the prom started immediately. The theme was "Hitch Your Wagon TO A STAR," and the big night was May 16.

After all this activity we were all glad to see summer come.

However, after three months we were just as eager to return to school. At our first class meeting as seniors, we elected the following officers: Gerald Abke, President; James Ellis, Vice President; Joy Motter, Secretary; and Edna Mae Franz, Treasurer. Our advisers were Mrs. Barbara Provost, Mr. Richard Lowrie, and Mr. J. Loren Niday.

October 6 and 7 we had our senior pictures taken.

While waiting for the finished products, we began working on our play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." The cast included: Lillian Vavrik, James Henschen, Ronald Cook, Dale Bockbrader, Joseph Appelhans, Barbara Sundermeier, Ann Wallace, James Wegman, Kenneth Spicer, Donald Gerke, William Snyder, Elmer Bomlitz, Raymond Ruswinkle, Stephen Essinger, Janet Dierksheide.

Our director was Mr. J. Loren Niday.

It was presented November 20 and 21, and it, too, was successful.

Early in December our pictures arrived - very little was accomplished at school that day.

The first week in Janary we were measured for caps and gowns in preparation for the big event. The following week we selected our class motto, colors, and flower.

January 22, Sirje Nepp and Jacqueline Jividen represented our class as basketball queen attendants while Myra Minnix reigned as basketball queen.

February 20, we sponsored a dance.

April 30 we left on the 8:55 p.m. train for Washington, D. C. on our senior trip. After many sleepless hours of fun and sight-seeing, we returned home May 4. Only then did we begin to realize that the days we would spend together, as a class, were numbered.

May 14, after much excitement and preparation, the juniors gave us a Prom using our newest state as the theme.

All of us hated to see this night draw to a close.

At last, the long awaited day was almost here, but now we hated to see it come. Sunday, May 15, the day following the prom, our baccalaureate was held in the high school auditorium. Then on Wednesday, May 18, commencement was held in the auditorium of the administration building at BGSU. Mr. Roger L. Downing, executive Vice President of the Ohio Consumer Loan Association delivered the address.

We entered the auditorium as a class, everyone seeking the same goal, a high school diploma. We left as individuals, each to take his place in a complex society.

But, one thing, as long as we live we will never forget the two glorious years we spent together at Eastwood High School.

MOTTO: "For we walk by faith, not by sight."

COLORS: Royal blue and white.

FLOWER: Roses
